Student Athlete SCORES December Penn Station Award

DAYTON, Ohio December 2, 2009– She kicks to the left, she kicks to the right, SCORE! Taylor Dearbaugh of Centerville High School has just won the Penn Station Athlete of the Month game! Recognized for her amazing footwork and soccer ability, Taylor is the last athlete winner for the 2009 year. Beyond the field, Taylor is a highly achieved student with a grade point average of 3.8, with aspirations to study animal science and play soccer at University of Kentucky.

Taylor considers her greatest achievement being named the All-State team, and prides herself as a member of the Key Club and Spanish Club. Taylor feels soccer has helped her make a lot of good friends and has developed her as a team player. Ron Ullery, Centerville Athletic Director says, “Taylor is a fierce competitor who always places her team and teammates above personal gain. She has worked tirelessly throughout high school to become the player that she is and will continue to get even better throughout her college career. It’s been a pleasure to watch her career evolve over the past four years.” Taylor anticipates graduation in June 2010. In honor of Taylor’s achievement as Athlete of the Month, Penn Station will reward her with gifts, including a $500 grant towards the Centerville Athletic Department. Her picture will be hung in Penn Station, personalized coupons for the entire student body, and she will be in the running towards a $5,000 college scholarship to be awarded at the end of the school year.

Nearly 11 years ago, Penn Station launched the “Athlete of the Month” program to showcase the extraordinary student athletes in Dayton. Since then, Penn Station East Coast Subs has awarded nearly $100,000 in award money and college scholarships. Ninety students have received “Athlete of the Month” recognition and ten have been awarded $5,000 college scholarships. “Taylor is a wonderful, positive influence in our Dayton community. We are proud to add her to our list of winners and glad to be a part of her future,” says John Dorger, Managing Owner of Penn Station Dayton.
